Ladies Lunch by Adelaide

On Wednesday the 31st of May our school held our annual Mother's Day Luncheon. We cooked food, decorated, and then had the day.

We cooked the slices the week before and then started cooking on Tuesday the week of the Luncheon. On Tuesday we cooked things like soup and made sausage rolls. On the day-Wednesday-we made the rice paper rolls and cooked the sausage rolls.

We decorated on Wednesday. We put tissue paper flowers in vases and hung cardboard painted hearts and flowers from the ceiling. We put white table cloths on the table and hung our painted pictures on strings.

We held our luncheon on Wednesday the 31st of June. The ladies came and signed in. They paid their $10 fee and entered the decorated room. They ate their food, listened to our practised songs and then left.

In conclusion I think this day went very well. Some ladies sent emails or letters saying how much they enjoyed the day and expressing their thanks to us for holding it.

Ladies Lunch by Clancy

On the 31st of May we had our annual Ladies Lunch. It is a day when we sing songs and serve food to the ladies. Everyone always enjoys having this very special day.

We have to do a lot of preparation to get ready, such as cooking, decorations and practising our songs. The foods we cooked were slices, cakes, sandwiches and drinks. We also had fairy bread and frankfurts for the younger kids.

In art we had to do some love heart cut outs and some paper flowers in vases on the tables, it looked really nice. One of my favourite bits was making the flowers out of different colour paper then joining them together with wire then putting them on sticks.

My other favourite bit was when we got to serve the ladies. We had to walk around with plates and ask the ladies if they would like something from our plate. This year's Ladies Lunch was my last and one of the best.

Ladies Lunch by Tegan

On the 31st of May, LPS hosted a Ladies Luncheon for the woman of our community. A week before the event we cooked this food. The food that was cooked was sausage rolls, Licorice slice, lemon slice, Jelly slice, Honey joys, Hazelnut slice, chocolate slice, club sandwiches, dips, beetroot hommus, fried rice, apple slice, yo-yos, vol-u-vents, punch, fairy bread, corn and potato chowder and pumpkin soup.

We entertained the ladies with songs; the songs were 'Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious', 'One Direction' and 'Motown Medley'.

The thing that we also did it was art. One of the decorations was on the table. We decorated the table by some flowers we made. We also got some light up things from the reject shop. That's how we decorated the tables.
